Wesleyan University
Department of Romance Languages & Literatures (Spanish)

The Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at Wesleyan University is seeking a Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish for a one-year appointment beginning effective September 1, 2020. The successful candidate will teach 5 courses, most likely 4 at the intermediate and/or advanced intermediate level and one advanced seminar on Latin America. We seek 1) a Latin Americanist with a completed PhD by time of appointment; 2) native or near-native fluency in Spanish; and 3) evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching. Candidates will be asked to upload electronic versions of the items we require, which are: a cover letter of application; CV; sample syllabi; and evidence of teaching effectiveness (if available). You will also be asked to provide the email addresses of three referees from whom we may obtain confidential letters of recommendation (please double-check the accuracy of the email addresses of the referees you name to ensure that you have the most up-to-date email addresses for each one). As part of the cover letter, we invite you to describe your cultural competencies and experiences engaging a diverse student body.

Note for Interfolio users: We gladly accept letters of recommendation from Interfolio. From your Interfolio account, please use the "web delivery" method to upload your letters directly to our online application.
